The Chestnut Street House as Nos 168 Upper Bucklewell St. in the Co. of the City of Dublin held by the Church. This co. trustee in fee simple as trustees of settled estate of which the house was for life is the Rev. Henry H. Lewis-Crosby. The boys schools upon the premises have been completely destroyed & thus the security for the rent payable in respect of the premises, as mentioned below has been injured. The church seeks re-valuation of the school boys to the extent of the value of the boys destroyed & that all moneys allocated or awarded in respect of the destruction of the school boys shall be placed under the joint control of the church & trustees of the respective boys.
