Dear Sir-

We have yours of the 5th inst and note contents.

You state that there is no record of receipt of a claim from Dr. Mc.Walter, this we think must be an oversight. The claim was lodged with you on the 12th August with a number of others and we have copy of our letter to you accompanying them and referring to it, and on the 23rd August you wrote us as to several cases, in this asking for the Patriotic Company's Insurance policies and last premium receipts, and if you refer to papers in the matter you will find your requirements have been complied with. We trust the investigation of the claim will not under the circumstances be retarded.

re Mrs Ryan claim No 5890

We enclose Policies Nos 4918357 and 4918359 in the North British and Mercantile Insurance Co and certificate that the Policies are in force and the current premiums paid, The claim although referring to injury to 5 separate houses amounts only to £10:10:2: so we trust you will let us have policies back at as early a date as convenient as we got them on returnable receipt from our client's Bankers

Yours faithfully
