Dear Sir

your letter 12 Inst-Re

Claim for watch lost-at M<sup>r</sup> M<sup>r</sup> D wells 3 Upper Lockwell St- During rebellion received, Watch was bought-at Messrs Happings & Hopkings

Lockwell St- about- 15 years ago £25 was paid for time only getting the used watch as before, & my ticket - I still hold this watch, I called on Mr.

McDowell soon after Easter He remembers transaction & is satisfied that my claim is correct I have been a customer of his for some years & is well known to him, If it is necessary to have an interview with me I can call on you any time you are out & let you see the watch &

Some, I regret - I cannot - let you have up an ticket; watch was left in for repairs two weeks before Rebellion & ticket - Issued & a used watch, I called the following Monday got my own watch returned ticket - & used one, I found during work it was not keeping proper time I ~~again~~
again on Friday this

Dear Sir,

Re. Your Claim.

Referring to my letter of the 12th inst., I would mention that you have not sent me the Repair Docket which you receiver from Messrs McDowells in exchange for watch, and unless I hear from you at any early date I will assume that you wish to withdraw your claim.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir,

Re Claim - Self.

The writer has been appointed by the Treasury to assess losses arising out of the recent Rebellion, and your claim for gold watch which was destroyed in J. McDowell's, 3. Upr Sackville Street had been handed to him for attention.

Would you kindly advise him when and where the watch in question was bought, and at the same time you might kindly let him ~~have~~ the repair Docket which you received from McDowell in exchange for the watch.

Yours faithfully,

J. S. J. Phillips
