*Register separately
but keep together*

Dear Sir,

Re Francis Molloy, a Lunatic.

I sent in a claim for loss and damage in my representative capacity as Committee of the above estate, and I included in such claim the loss of clothing of certain of my assistants who reside on the premises. I have been informed that separate claims should have been sent in through me by the assistants themselves, and as I presume they have been disallowed in my claim I now send in separate claims from the members of the staff, which I trust will have your attention.

Faithfully yours,

Committee.
