I had a long interview with above and the circumstances are as follows:-

The house was entered by the rebels, who ordered him to leave at once or be shot. In company with his wife & family he went to Dominick St. He is caretaker of the master Barber premises at above & is an ex policeman.

He has not a very large salary & he had to borrow some money to pay his way during the rebellion, and it was from Mr. Kennedy (Chairman) that he got the money. His salary is just enough to make ends meet, and he is anxious to pay back this money and it is for that he makes his claim. Of course I told him that I did not think his claim would be admitted. I consider the claim is quite genuine and shall be glad if in view of the peculiar circumstances, will give the case consideration. His furniture was not damaged.
