Insurance policy as
her claim incl. v.
returned to Johns

for 6/11/16

Aus.

Mrs. Lorry daughter of Mrs. Lalouette of Prince's Street (destroyed area in Rebellion of 1916) called to see me today. She s^d. she was uneasy in her mind as to the regularity of the claim for compensation put forward by her mother and made a series of rambling in incoherent statements as to the irresponsibility of her mother & herself - I tried to elicit from her some details of the presumed errors or misstatements in the claim, but she repudiated everything of that kind & indulged in hysterical weeping. - I think the lady's mind is not well

Dear Sir, NO. 6120, ISABELLA LALOUETTE.

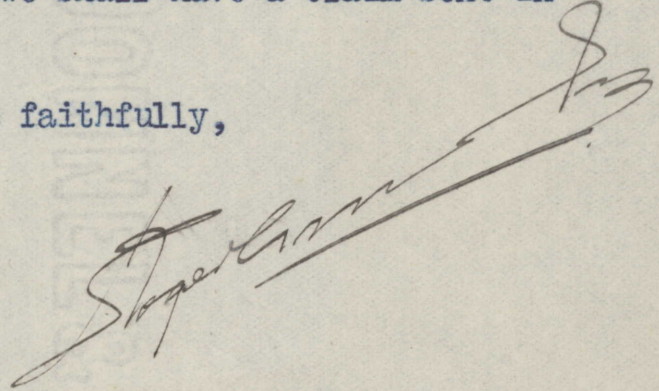

In compliance with yours of the 30th ult., enclosed we send you receipt for last premium on Fire Policy.

In answer to your inquiry why the claim is not made by Mrs. Lalouette personally, you will see from the form that Mr. Corry ~~only~~ made the declaration as Manager for Mrs. Lalouette, and she is returned as the owner of the premises.

Mrs. Lalouette is an elderly lady, and unfortunately, has been in very delicate health for some years past, with the result that the working of the place fell entirely on Mr. Corry's shoulders, who is ^{and consequently more} her son-in-law/intimate with the business and the losses sustained.

If you consider it necessary we shall have a claim sent in by Mrs. Lalouette personally.

Yours faithfully,

Ackd, stating that claim as furnished will now be dealt with. W.S. 5/9/16
