Dear Sir

I beg to make application while employed in the Continental Restaurant Beconnell St. of property which has been lost by me during the recent rebellion. I should have looked about it sooner had I known its just by mere accident I heard about it. I have an invalid husband for the past twelve months and I would feel most grateful if you could let me have one of your forms to fill in I am in very poor circumstances at the present time and I would never be able to cover the losses incurred during that time. I remain Yours
Respectfully Mrs. Morgan
