FOTTRELL & MOONEY.

MORGAN FOTTRELL,
SOLICITOR.
COMMISSIONER FOR OATHS.

TELEPHONE No. 1454.

11 ANGLESEA STREET,
DUBLIN.

13th September 1916.

re Premises 6 Lower Abbey Street & 13 Sackville Place.

Dear Sir,

Referring to your letter in which you stated that it would be more satisfactory if a separate formal claim were lodged by my clients in respect of their interest in the above named premises I send you a claim on their behalf. My clients are at present away. I have acted for several years for them in connection with the above premises and I am personally aware of the facts connected with title etc. The under-tenants who have made a claim and have I understand given all necessary particulars estimate the amount required for rebuilding as £3,410. 0. 0 and I have adopted that figure. The object of lodging the claim is to secure that the allowance made for rebuilding may be duly expended in compliance with the covenants in the lease under which my clients hold and in the lease under which the occupying tenants hold.

Yours faithfully,

Morgan Fottrell

The Secretary,

Property Losses (Ireland) Committee, 1916.
