RE JOHN MURPHY, DECEASED.
Claim No. 3196.

Dear Sir,

Included in above claim which has been referred to Messrs. Hume & Co., you will observe that a sum of £65. was claimed for personal effects of three assistants and House keeper. These parties were under the impression until quite recently that it was sufficient for Mr. Murphy to make claim on their behalf and under the circumstances I assume the Committee will now accept their Declarations sent herewith, notwithstanding the time for lodgment thereof has expired. Mr. Murphy also in his Declaration which was made on behalf of the Widow and next-of-kin of the Deceased claimed the sum of £75. for personal effects. He has since the making of said Declaration gone into the matter more carefully and instead of claiming £75. he should have claimed £85. 17. 0., £74. 1. 0. thereof being in respect of his own personal property, particulars whereof are set forth in his Declaration sent herewith, and the balance £11. 16. 0. as being the value of the Deceased's personal belongings. The claim of £75. in the said Declaration should accordingly be reduced to £11. 16. 0. Mr. Murphy claiming on his own behalf the £74. 1. 0.

Yours truly,

Peter Seales
