Dear Sir,

I have a number of large and valuable pictures (steel Engraving and oil Painting by the best Artists, averaging 3 ft square and all richly mounted) left with the Tarrant for safe custody some 7 or 8 months before the Rebellion. In addition to these I had valuable and artistic vases, antique clock, 4 Portman~~er~~ packed with clothes of various kinds and other valuables. One of the suits was quite new as well as the underwear, boots, &c., &c.

In addition to these I had some of my luggage as a commercial traveller, in the post card & some card Trade and kindred things, and not alone had I samples but several pounds worth of goods as I had acted in the Capacity of Buying Agent for various English Firms.

I presume you have a set Form of Application for Com.
specification for the burning of property,
and I shall thank you
to let me have it by return of post.

I have undertaken
2 serious operations
in Dublin by Messrs Playney and Kennedy
and was so very unwell

that by the Secretary's directions I was hurried to the country where I have been very unwell for the past 4 months.
Only within the past few days have I been able to attend even to the most pressing business, hence delay in sending approval to you, which in the said circumstances, you and your Committee will readily excuse.
Thanking you in
