Interests in the buildings

Remarks. Claimant furnished Estimates from two first class city firms which on checking over in detail I found reasonably stated, & I have no hesitation in recommending claim in full. Claimant is responsible under his lease to keep the interior of the house in repair & hence claims for internal damage. I have satisfied myself that no claim will be made by the landlord in this respect, as the only amount claimed by the latter is for damage to Window Glass & I have interviewed him & reported on his claim. PARTICULARS OF THE CLAIM.

(TO BE GIVEN IN DETAIL.)

[illegible]

- Notes on Claim of Claude Fulcher -

for compensation for damage caused by disturbances in Dublin, Easter 1916.

1. As in many cases it is not possible to state exactly either cost price, or value at time of destruction, the amount claimed is that required to repair damage in a reasonable manner, as per attached Estimates.

Only necessary repairs have been claimed, some minor damages being omitted.

2. The claim only relates to damage which I, as tenant, have to make good, and for which I understand no claim has been or will be made by the Landlord.

3. The Bathroom was occupied by soldiers as a firing and observation post for several days, and for these purposes the men had to stand in the Bath.

4. With reference to items marked 'c' in estimate, I have put down the less expensive alternative.

5. My Insurance policy does not cover this damage, & no claim has been, or will be made on account thereof.

Claude Fulcher.

Dear Sir,

Shortly after the Rebellion I sent in a claim for damages
to the Police Authorities, being informed on what I believed at the time to be good authority that that was the proper course.

Under the impression that the claim would be dealt with in due course I took no further steps in the matter.

I now find that Claims should ^{have} been sent in to your Department before this, but I hope you will be able to accept my claim, & if so I shall esteem it a favour if you will kindly forward the necessary forms.

The claim will not be large.

I am, dear Sir,
Yours faithfully
