Dear Sir,

Referring to your letter of enquiry as to why I did not forward my claim on Messrs. Hopkins I offer the following answer which I need not assure you is perfectly genuine.

The press of business was so great on me this last few months that I never had time to read the paper fully in the morning. I used merely run over the headings & little more, so I did not observe the notification of the Property Losses Committee to which you refer.

I was waiting therefore till Messrs. Hopkins should open their new establishment, and on the first opportunity I got of entering that establishment I applied for restitution which I thought they would make by giving me another alarm clock to replace the one I had lost.

I beg you therefore to kindly accept my claim for 2/6 as I assure you I can ill afford to be even so much out of pocket.

Yours faithfully
(Rev. Fr.) J. O'Doherty
