re:- Claim No.6241

Dear Sir,

we have your letter to hand herein with reference to above and note contents. We cannot understand why your Committee refused to entertain this claim. There is no doubt whatever that the Military entered the premises and took possession of same and the articles mentioned in the claim were removed or destroyed by them. We have in our possession a letter from Mrs Hanna Sheehy Skeffington to the Secretary of the Bank dated 30th August 1916 wherein she states that amongst papers returned to her by the Military authorities were pro notes and other documents belonging to the Sinn Fein Bank. We would thank you to bring this matter again before your committee.

Yours faithfully,
