INTERIM PROTECTION NOTE.

18th. January 1916.

Messrs. Lever Brothers Limited & Others, for their respective rights and interests, having this day proposed to effect an insurance of £17,500 (Ex- the -cess Insurance.)
property undermentioned is hereby held insured against fire from the date hereof unless notice be given in the meantime to the Proposer that the proposal is declined. The insurance hereby effected is subject to the same conditions (copies of which are printed on the back hereof) as are contained in and endorsed upon the printed form of Policy ordinarily used by the Company.

On being 35% of a schedule for £50,000. On Stock and materials in trade and all other contents, the property of the Insured or held by them in trust or on commission for which they are responsible, whilst contained in the Warehouses, sheds, yards, or quays, note dated 25/12/15 and cancelling same.

This insurance is intended to cover Stock in excess of the specific amounts insured in buildings named on cover, but does not come into operation until the specific insurance on the said property has been exhausted, in accordance with the conditions applicable to the said specific insurance.

THE CONDITIONS OF THE POLICY.

1. Any material misdescription of any of the Property hereby insured or any building or place in which such Property is stated to be contained or any misstatement of any fact material to be known for estimating the risk or any omission to state any such fact renders this Policy void so far as it relates to Property affected by such misdescription, misstatement, or omission, and if after the Insurance by this Policy has been undertaken anything be done otherwise than in and about the execution of ordinary repairs whereby the danger of Loss or Damage to Property hereby insured is increased the same must immediately be notified to the Company, and unless accepted in writing by the Company the Policy shall be void.

2. If except as provided for in the Additional Advantages set out above, any of the Property hereby insured be removed from the Building or Place in which it is herein stated to be contained, or if the interest of the Insured in Property hereby insured shall pass from him otherwise than by Will or operation of Law, this Policy shall cease to attach thereto unless a memorandum is endorsed hereon by or on behalf of the Company signifying their consent to the continuance of the Insurance.

3. This Policy does not cover:-

(a) Money, Securities, Documents, Loss or Damage to Property occasioned by or happening through its own Spontaneous Fermentation or Heating, Loss or Damage, occasioned by or happening through Subterranean Fire, Earthquakes, Invasion, Foreign Enemy, Riot, Civil Commotion, Military or Usurped Power.

(b) Loss or Damage to Property which at the time of happening of such Loss or Damage is insured by, or would, but for the existence of this Policy, be insured by any Marine Policy or Policies, except in respect of any excess beyond the amount which would have been payable under the Marine Policy or Policies had this Insurance not been effected

(c) Loss or Damage by explosion other than such as may be provided for in the Policy.

(d) Goods held in Trust or on Commission.

(e) Plans, Patents, Models, Moulds, Designs, Stamps
Books of Account, or Manuscripts

} Unless the same are specially mentioned in and insured by the Policy

4. On the happening of any Loss or Damage, the Insured shall forthwith give notice thereof in writing to the Company, and shall within thirty days after such Loss or Damage, or such further time as the Company may allow, delivered to the Company a Claim in writing for the Loss or Damage, containing as particular an Account as may be reasonably practicable of the several articles or items of property damaged or destroyed, and of the amount of Loss or Damage thereto respectively. The insured shall also give to the Company all such proofs and information with respect to the Claim as may be reasonably required.

5. If the Claim be in any respect fraudulent or if any fraudulent devices are used by the Insured, or anyone acting on his behalf, to obtain any benefit under this Policy, all benefit under it shall be forfeited.

6. The Company may elect to replace or reinstate any Property, in such case the Insured shall produce and give to the Company all such plans, documents, books and information as the Company may reasonably require.

7. On the happening of any Loss or Damage, in respect of which a Claim is or may be made under this Policy, the Company and every person authorised by the Company, may enter, take, and keep possession of the Building or Premises where the loss or Damage has happened, and may take possession of, or require to be delivered to it or them any of the property hereby insured, and may examine, sort sift, arrange, remove, keep possession of, and otherwise deal with such property for all reasonable purposes and in any reasonable manner. If the Insured or anyone acting on his behalf shall not comply with the requirements of the Company, or shall hinder or obstruct the Company in doing any of the above-mentioned Acts, then all benefit under this Policy shall be forfeited.

8. If at the time of any Loss or Damage, there be any other subsisting Insurance, covering such Loss or Damage, the Company shall not be liable for more than its rateable proportion thereof. And if there shall then be any other subsisting Insurance, on any of the Property hereby insured, either alone or together with any other Property which shall be subject to any condition of Average, the Insurance of such Property under this Policy shall be subject to such condition of Average in like manner.

9. All differences arising out of this Policy shall be referred to the decision of an Arbitrator to be appointed in writing by the parties in difference, or if they cannot agree upon a single Arbitrator to the decision of two Arbitrators, one to be appointed by each of the parties in writing or in case of disagreement, by an Umpire appointed by the Arbitrators in writing before entering upon the Reference. The Company in any event, shall bear its own costs of the Reference. The cost of the other party and of the Award shall be in the discretion of the Arbitrator, Arbitrators, or Umpire making the Award, whose Award shall be a condition precedent to any liability of the Company or any right of action against the Company in respect of any Claim. And after the expiration of one year after any Loss or Damage the Company shall not be liable in respect of any Claim therefore unless such Claim shall in the meantime have been referred to Arbitration.

10. The insured and any Claimant under this Policy shall, at the expense of the Company, do and concur in doing and permit to be done, all such acts and things as may be necessary or reasonably required by the Company for the purpose of enforcing any rights and remedies or of obtaining relief or indemnity from other parties to which the Company shall be or would become entitled or subrogated, upon its paying for or making good any Loss or Damage under this Policy, whether such acts and things shall become necessary or required before or after his indemnification by the Company.

11. Any Warranties to which the Property insured, or any item thereof, is or may at any time be made subject, shall attach and continue to be in force during the whole of the currency of the Policy; and non-compliance at any time with any of the Warranties shall be a bar to any Claim in respect of such Property or item.

Dear Sir,

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of 14th instant, and in reply to say that all claims in respect of looting from Messrs Tedcastle McCormick & Company's Depot will be dealt with together and some further claims are awaited. In the meantime Messrs Lever should have the damaged soap valued so as to have the information available for the Committee's Assessor; and it should also be included in claim in column headed "Value of Salvage."

Yours faithfully,

The Secretary,

Dear Sir,

With reference to our letter of 27th. ulto, we find that there is a quantity of damaged soap which will require to be valued with a view to arriving at the amount of our claim in respect of damage caused during the disturbances in Dublin. We shall be obliged if you will let us know what course should be followed in the valuation of the damaged goods.

If it is desired that a valuer be instructed on behalf of the Property Losses Committee, will you be good enough to let us know the name of your valuer so that the valuation can be made at as early a date as possible and the goods removed. The goods are still where they were damaged, namely, at the depot of Messrs. Tedcastle McCormick & Co. Ltd, 3, Sir John Rogerson's Quay, Dublin.

Yours faithfully,

LEVER BROTHERS LIMITED.
