LONDON, E.C. 26th September 1916.

Dear Sir,

Replying to your letter of September 23rd., referring to our application of the 21st. for two more copies of the forms, we have to say that we did not learn that our goods were missing until July 6th and since this date, we have been in correspondence with the Steamship Co., and our customers, and on the 13th of this month only have we received a communication which finally establishes the limit of our loss.

Your letter of August 22nd made no mention of a time limit for claims and under all the circumstances we trust our small claim can be admitted.

Yours faithfully,

Burroughs Wellcome & Co.,
