Dear Sir. In reply to you to point out that owing to absence from home owing to ill health I was unable to attend to claim form.

With regard to knowing what date was fixed for sending in form. I must admit I was not aware. as I did not look at papers for notice of same. Neither do I recollect on receiving here form at the time I received it - having noticed any date mentioned here for return of form,

Anyhow if you will allow me.

Mr. Munn.

to explain for further information. My claim is on Messrs. Hopkins & Hopkins for a pair of Barings sent for repairs prior to Rio de Janeiro for which I hold their card acknowledging same, when matters questioned law. I wrote these people re.
Barings & in return I got this form, the day before I left home.
& on my return home a few days before you got my card.
I made a search for the form but no trace. Hence my application for second form.
This is how matters stand

I trust this explanation will suffice & that you will see yr. way & bring the matter before yr. Committee. Meeting you in anticipation & Hoping every trouble which may occur for
