To the Soc.

Dear Sir

With reference to enclosed letter I wish to tell you that I was told in Mr. Kidney's Office when I first made my own claim that it would be alright to claim for M. J. Larken, who was in my service, & lost all her belongings also Edward Cunningham who lodged in my house, they dependent on me, and I heard nothing about my own I looked them both up, and told them to go over to your office, and they were told to write to you, I had not any experience, and did not see the notice in the paper and I was very much knocked about myself. I hope you

Mr. Larken

Dear Sir

Will you kindly send me an application form for compensation for the loss of my things through the rebellion.

The reason I am so late in applying is. I thought my mistress could have claimed for me with her own case - I find now she did not. I called to your office and I was told to write to you personally. Hoping to be favoured with a reply.

I remain
Yours respectfully
M. J. Larkin
