REPORTED ON BY COMMITTEE

28th Sept. 1916.

James J. Healy, Esq.

Secretary,

Property Losses (Ireland)

Committee, 1916.

Sir, Ennisworth Claim P.P. Shee.

The claimant in this case, who holds the management of the National Bank here, has addressed a communication to me, dated 27th inst, and I enclose it which speaks for itself. In response to his desire, I made an appointment with him, ~~with him~~ with the result that I got him to complete a claim form, and I also enclose it, with an estimate for the Building damage. He informs me that he reported the claim to the local Police on the 1st of May last, and understood from them subsequently that his claim would be laid before the Committee in due course. Apparently nothing has been done by the Police in this direction.

Possibly they may have considered it sufficient to acquaint ^{their} Dublin Castle Authorities.

Your obedient Servant,
 B. Wyndolif

Yours faithfully
