Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 25th inst., my chief reason for not putting in a claim was that until I read lately of stocks being replaced, I thought all the claims would have to go before the Recorder, and being in employment from which it is almost impossible for me to obtain any leave, I dare not jeopardise my position.

I ran this business in my spare time chiefly through the post.

Being excessively overworked during the past year I have had little opportunity to read the morning papers, and am exceedingly sorry to have missed the notice you refer to, and also for not being able to answer your letter per return

Faithfully yours

Charles H. Milner

Being uninsured I was inclined to let this matter go by default, but the threat the matter.

The precious metal lost in the debris was in and on the desk in course of preparation
