The Secretary
Property Losses (Ireland) Com.
51 St Stephens Green Dublin

Dear Sir

As advised I called at your office to-day to repeat my claim for £9 (Nine Pounds) property loss arising out of damage to the windows at my house, 18 Northumberland R.

I had to pay this sum to Messrs Jones & Co of Stephens Green, and hold their receipt.

As advised I sent this claim on May 13th to Police Office, Rathmines. It was delivered there personally by T.R. Jozé, M.S.D. of Ardowan Grosvenor road Rathmines. I got no acknowledgment whatever although I wrote asking for one. Since then I have awaited a reply, but accidentally was informed by Mrs. Claude Fulcher, wife of my tenant at 18 Northumb. R. (aforesaid) that I should see you personally at once. To day, your young assistant, a nice & clever boy, was very courteous to me. He informed me that no forms were now available, but that I should write to explain my delay in making application. This I do, and ask for ^{the favour of} a reply, this time S.v.p.

Your obt. Servant

Joseph Seymour
