REPORTED ON BY COMMITTEE

2 Great Clarence St
Dublin

Sir

I called to your office on Tuesday last and the man in charge told me I would have to apply to you in writing. The reason I did not apply sooner was that at the time of the disturbance I was expecting a baby. Since baby was born both of us have

6360
been delicate. During Easter week I had to leave my room, as the house I lived in was severely damaged the greater part of my effects were broken up My husband is in the M.D.I and has been in France since last March -

I am
