regs was sent from J.M.
Done 10/10/16

The reason we did not write you before was, because we put our claim in to Messrs. Tedcastle, McCormack & Co., (the shipping Co.) who we understood would be responsible, and they would make the claim to you. As we could get no satisfaction from them, we wrote Messrs. Farrie & Co., of Liverpool, and we enclose you a copy of their letter.

We may mention that the amount of the Looted Sugar according to Messrs. Farrie's invoice was £11. 17. 10. (Eleven pounds, seventeen shilling and ten pence).

Yours faithfully,

J. R. Belcher

Dear Sirs,

With reference to the Sugar for College Hotel, Dublin, which was looted, we suggest as a start you make your claim on the shipping Co., (Tedcastle, McCormick & Co.,) It is however, quite possible they will refuse it, refer you to the Dublin Authorities for a settlement..

Yours truly,
