See Mr. Simpson

Dear Sirs

You will remember you had on your premises in Easter Week my sitting-room clock of value £10. It was, of course, destroyed by the fire.
 May I ask you kindly to obtain for me from the proper Government Authority compensation to the above amount?
 I have just now learned that my application for compensation is already out of time.
 My excuse is I completely missed the notice of time-limit. I shall be very grateful, therefore, if you kindly urge my claim. The clock was purchased from your firm.

Faithfully Yours
