I beg to apply for compensation in respect of injury done to my houses nos 34 + 36 Caledonia Terrace, upper Grand Canal St during the disturbance in April last. Two very large panes of glass were broken, and also a down pipe was smashed by the firing in the locality (Beggan Bush Barracks)

As to my delay in making a claim, I have to explain that, up to yesterday, I was totally unaware that any compensation was being allowed. I knew of course that an Act of Parliament dealing with such matter was expected, and awaited the Result.

Under the circumstances I hope my delay may be ~~excused~~ excused, and that I may be supplied with the requisite forms of application

I am, Sir,

Yours obed^t Servant
