Dear Sir,
Kindly send me a form of claim for property lost by me during the late rebellion, in the Waring bye works branch 2 Upper Jackville Street, in whose employment I was for over three years. The delay in sending in my claim has been caused by a misapprehension that the Company would compensate me for the loss. I have got travelling since I sustained the loss & have been out of town for sometime. My maiden name was of Miss Campbell. Your earliest attention will oblige,

6336

Yours truly
(Mrs) Annie Campbell
