Dear Sir,

Re Mrs. Amy E. Tyler.

Referring to your letter of 24th inst., we now send you Forms of Claim on behalf of Mrs. Amy E. Tyler in duplicate duly completed. The amount due to our client in respect of the goods for which we understand Mr. Fauvin has also put in a claim is £83: 6: 8. These goods were bought on a hire purchase Agreement, and the property remains vested in our client until payment of the purchase money. We also send you the original Policy of Fire Insurance effected by our client in respect of these goods in The County Fire Office, No. 2129746, from which you will see the goods were insured for the amount of their value, £350. Kindly return us the Policy when you are done with it, and acknowledge receipt of the documents.

Faithfully yours,

W. A. Wickham

October 23, 1916.

Dear Sir,

Re Mrs. Amy E. Tyler.

Referring to our previous letter of 19th inst., we have now got definite particulars of the amount due to our client, Mrs. Amy E. Tyler, in respect of the furniture and other property destroyed in the Cafe basement at No. 1 Upper Sackville Street, and in respect of which we understand Mr. Fauvin has put in a claim. The original price agreed to be paid for the property by Mr. Fauvin was £350, and there was due to our client at the time of the destruction of the property a balance of £83 6 8. The property was only let to him on a hire purchase Agreement, and therefore he would not be entitled to the proceeds of their value until the entire amount is cleared off. If it is necessary for our client to put in a regular claim, will you kindly let us have the necessary Forms by return. We may add that our client had the property insured for £350.

Faithfully yours,

W. J. Walker & Co.

Dear Sir,

We are acting on behalf of Mrs. Amy E. Tyler of The Chestnuts, Cadby, Leicester, who has asked us to write to you in reference to a claim for compensation which we understand has been sent in by Monsieur Camille Fauvin. Monsieur Fauvin had a Restaurant under Messrs Tyler's premises at 1 Upper Sackville Street, and we understand that he has put in a claim in respect of the loss of the property connected with the Restaurant, kitchen utensils, cutlery, plate, and general furniture of the Restaurant. This furniture is the property of our client, Mrs. Amy E. Tyler, and was let to Monsieur Fauvin on the Hire Purchase System. There is upwards of £90 due to our client in respect of same, and we think it right to inform you and on her behalf caution you against making the payment in respect of same without her authority.

We shall be glad if you will kindly acknowledge receipt of this letter.

Faithfully yours,
