Repts. sent from

Donegal 21/10 29/10/16

Dear Sirs,

I shall be glad if you will send me a claim form for Private Property lost during the recent insurrection. I was for two years previous to the Rebellion in the Employment of Messrs. H. H. & Hurst Ltd. of St. Brunswick St. as Accountant & Cashier. I understood that my claim for personal property was included in Messrs. Hurst's claim but on enquiry I learn from Mr. H. H. & Hurst that I must claim personally & that his firm's claim did not include any personal losses.

Under these circumstances I presume you will extend any assistance you can as I understand that personal claims should all have been sent in long ago.

I enclose envelope for your reply and might mention that my claim is not big, & as I may have had same settled by now had I taken the correct procedure that you will not think it unfair to claim now.

I called at your office today & was informed to apply for a Form in writing.

I feel sure that Mr. H. H. E. Hunt can verify my statements if necessary.

Yours faithfully
H. B. Evans
