Dear Sir

I am the owner of 11 Cr Dorset St, Dublin and have suffered loss owing to the rebellion in Easter week last. The shop is occupied by my tenant The Maypole Dairy Co and during the rebellion the sash + frame + glass also the back gate were broken and damaged and were subsequently replaced by me at a cost of £3-10-0. Owing to ignorance on my part about making a claim I allowed the matter to lapse until I received a letter from the government assessors re a claim the Maypole Dairy were making for a plate glass window broken and I inquired about a claim for my loss and was told to make a claim to you for same. I will feel obliged if you will kindly let me know whether this will be paid on this letter or whether it is necessary to fill up an forms. If you require forms to be filled up will you kindly let me have them and I shall sign them in the presence of Mr G. P. O'Neill, J. P. and return them to you. The Maypole Dairy have already sent in a claim for compensation for butter and other things looted from their shop after the gate & windows had been broken and I understand they are about to receive compensation for their loss. Trusting you will give this application your favourable consideration.

yours truly,
Dennis Jackson.
