Dear Sir,

Kindly let us have forms to lodge a claim on behalf of Mr. Jos. Hayes 7 North King Street. This party was wounded during the rebellion and we were given to understand that his entire claim would be dealt with by the committee appointed to enquire into the cases of injured persons. We now understand that the Committee will only deal with the question of the injuries and that any claim for Loss of personal property must be made to your committee.

re:- Mrs. J.W. Power 692

Referring to previous correspondence on behalf of our client we understand that when the claim had been reported upon by the assessors that your Committee are in a position to make a payment on account, if we are correct in this we would thank you to place our client's claim before the Committee with a view to having a similar payment made to her.

re:- James N. Guinan. 307

Referring to previous correspondence we would thank you to let us know if this case has been disposed of and when we may expect to receive cheque on his behalf in settlement thereof.

Yours faithfully,

Corrigan & Corrigan
