Dear Sir

In reply to your letter of 13 inst. I beg to say I was on holidays at the time the last date for making claims was notified in the papers.

It was only early this month I heard of claims being paid and this must account for my not applying for the forms sooner. I know of course you could not go on indefinitely supplying them. However mine is a very small but genuine claim. Trusting you will send me the forms

Yours faithfully

M Cunningham

Dear Sir,

Would you kindly let me have two blue forms as I want to make a claim for a few articles taken from my room by the military during the rebellion. I would have made my claim before this but I was of the opinion no one would get compensation only those whose premises were damaged. But now I have known people to get paid in similar case to my own. Although the claim is small I hope you will see your way to send me the forms. I remain yours sincerely, M Cunningham

And would be in return
