Mr. Wm. W. W.
9th
31/10

Dear Sir.

Referring to your letter of this date, I beg to state that I was not aware there was a stated time,
announced in the press,
before which all claims
should be lodged.
I went for some months
to the country, after getting repairs done

and so probably the announcement escaped my notice. When first going to deed in my claim, I had not the fire insurance receipt,
which should accompany
it, to hand, and not knowing of the time
limit, decided to wait for receipt for the current year. Messrs.
Doekrell's bill for replacing the injured glass was 14/2. I trust, if possible, you can see your way
to include my claim.
I am, dear Sir, yours faithfully
B. Morris
