Dear Sir,

re Christopher Farrell
NO. 6496.

In reply to your letter of 24th inst., I sent you Farrell's claim duly verified on the 23rd October. It was accompanied by Ellen Constantine's claim of the same address, and I drew your attention to the fact that Farrell's claim was not in duplicate, as I had not got a second form to make another copy.

I shall be glad if you will look the matter up and let me hear from you without delay, because, if necessary, I shall get another form made.

Yours faithfully,

John McDowell

Mr. Mc Dowell has not yet replied to letter of 26th Oct. as to delay in sending claim, apparently.

Case now of cl. wh. will have be forwarded out.

11th Sept.,

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 8th instant, I beg to say that it is now too late to lodge with the Committee claims for losses arising out of the recent disturbances. If, however, there is any case of special hardship and ~~that~~ a satisfactory explanation for not furnishing the claim in time can be given, the Committee will consider whether they have power to relax the regulations in favour of such special case.

Yours faithfully,

J. M. McDowell, Esq.,

Dear Sir,

I have received instructions within the last few days in a couple of small cases to make claims. Will you kindly let me know if it is too late to do so.

Yours faithfully,

Wm

In reply to yr ltr. of the 2nd inst. I beg to say that it is now too late to lodge claims in connection claims for losses arising out of the recent disturbances.

If however there is any case of theft, burglary & the like in connection with the present case, it is true can be given, the Committee will consider whether they ^{have} ~~can~~ have to deal with the matter in favour of such a case.
