Remarks I have seen the claimant. I have also seen other people on the matter. As a result I am quite satisfied that £1. would be full compensation. The damage was caused to an old coat by bullets but not in Wynn's Hotel as stated by Solicitors in first paragraph of attached letter.

Dear Sir,

RE CLAIM OF CHARLES NEARY, No. 6505.

Herewith we return you this claim and have set out the Hotel in which property was destroyed, namely Wynn's Hotel.

RE CLAIM 6506. ALICIA DICKSON.

We return you this claim, and, in answer to your query beg to say that at the time the claim was made by Mrs. Dickson for other property that had been destroyed our assistant, who had charge of the claim, omitted to include the articles now claimed in the original demand. We have set out that the property destroyed was at 33, Upper Sackville Street.

RE CLAIM OF PATRICK TULLY. 6473.

In answer to your query as to this, we beg to say, that this party was in the employment of Messrs. Lalouette of Princes Street, and after the disturbances he took up a position in the country. He believed his employers were making a claim on his behalf, and it was only on the 17th ult. that he learned such was not the case. He is a man in humble circumstances, and it would be a very great hardship if the claim were now ruled out.

We enclose claim.

Yours faithfully,
