Sir. I recently was informed that the government are making good small losses in insured during the recent rebellion. I have been ill from March last, and have only recently been able to get about

I beg to inform you that my house No 6 Holles St was broken into by the military on the 2nd May last, and clothing and furniture much damaged to the extent of £4.

I am informed that there is a limit to the time allowed for making claim, but being unable to get about was not aware of this at the time. My Landlord Mr Jaaffe

27 Upper Sackville Street allows me to refer you to him as to Status &c. I trust to have an early reply.

I am sir.

Yours respectfully
Mrs Hogan
