The Secretary,
Property Losses(Ireland) Committee,
51, St. Stephen's Green, E.,
Dublin.

Dear Sir,

We enclose herewith claim for losses during the disturbances of 24th April last.

It has taken us all this time to make out a reliable list, on account of these goods being in warehouses and on railways in Dublin. We have had to wait notification from customers that the goods had not been received, and had then to make our claims through the shippers and Railway Cos., and have only just received their replies.

We are,

Yours faithfully,

Yours truly,
GEO. R. HALLER LIMITED,
A. S. H.

Goods are received by Geo. R. Haller, Ltd., for Wharfage, Shipment, Storage, Lighterage, and/or Carriage, upon the terms and conditions and subject to the exceptions contained in the latest edition of the authorised form of the Continental Bill of Lading issued by the London Direct Short Sea Traders' Association and upon the Company's published conditions printed on their Rate Quotation Forms.

Neither Geo. R. Haller, Ltd., nor other parties concerned, accept the responsibilities of negligence of Servants or of a common Carrier, or of an Insurer or of strikes however caused, or the consequences thereof, and do not contract to give notice of arrival of goods.

Goods may be sold if not taken away on arrival, or if the lien thereon be not discharged. Forms of the Bills of Lading and the Conditions referred to can be seen at the Offices of the Company. Bills of Lading will be signed on application, and can be obtained at the usual Stationers.

Merchants are particularly requested to see that their Policies of Insurance include the above and other excepted risks.

Geo. R. Haller, Ltd., do not accept responsibility for landing or other charges resulting from inability of lightermen to supply craft when required by shipowners or wharfinger, nor for demurrage charges incurred whilst awaiting shipment by steamer, nor can any undertaking be given to ship by any particular vessel.
