I left a cycle, my property, on the Friday preceding the Rebellion, with the New Hudson Co. Bachelors Walk for repairs. When the turmoil was over I called for it and I was informed that the place had been looted. I then made verbal application for compensation and afterwards applied through my solicitor J. L. Bourke. Upper Sackville St and I was informed my claim was included with the others. I called to the ~~New~~ New Hudson Co. yesterday and I was told all claims for machines left for repairs were deleted from their claim and that I should have to apply personally.

I would feel much obliged for form of application

Yours etc.
