Dear Sir

(was in in book - in el. with date) and 6/11

I beg to state my reasons for not making application to you before last week is, that I was away from home from the middle of April till the beginning of Sept. & I know nothing whatever of you or your place until the very day I wrote to you.

When I returned home I found the "Daisy" Office premises on Lackville St in ruins & I called at this Grafton St premises to ascertain if a Costume I had left at the Lackville St premises was at Grafton St & I was instructed there to apply to the Works at W^o Rathmines for any information concerning my Costume. I herewith enclose you the correspondence & it was on speaking of my loss to an friend that I found out it was to you I should have applied.

My Costume was a very good one, only the colors have faded & I want to do with same for winter it being an "Irish made one & cost 6/11 per yard at Smiths.

The costume was supplied & made for me
by Miss Connolly late of 42 St. Jackson St.
It whose premises were also destroyed.

I shall be very grateful if you please accept this statement & file my claim for kind consideration & allow me something for my lost costume which is at present owing to the abnormal cost of everything or rather big loss to me in buying a good winter costume & perfectly good.

Trusting to receive a favorable reply
& thanking you in anticipation

I am dear Sir

Yr truly

Mary J Donoghue.

Miss O'Donoghue,

Dear Madam,

In reply to your letter re. costume, as far as we can trace this costume was sent in to our Sackville St. Office either on Friday afternoon or Saturday morning previous to Easter. Whether it was delivered or not we cannot say, as all our books in this Office were destroyed. This is why we have no record of it.

We have traced as far as we are able to the owner's of any goods which were in this Office and sent in claims on their behalf, some of which are now settled, but we cannot accept any responsibility for goods that have not been claimed up to this.

In any case the fault was not ours, and we cannot be held responsible.

Yours faithfully,
