The Secretary
Property Losses (Ireland) Committee 1916,
51 St. Stephens Green, Dublin.

Sir

I enclose herewith claim for £5-10-0 value of glass in shop windows of 9 Fairview broken by bullets during Easter week 1916. Early in May I made a claim on the Dublin Corporation for the value of the glass broken, but on making enquiries last week as to when I might expect to have the damaged glass replaced I was informed that the ^{Committee} Corporation are not responsible and that you ^{are} the proper body to apply to.

I trust you can see your way to take up the claim even at this time, as the loss is a serious one to me. The police are aware of the damage done, and how it was caused.

P.S. Estimate Enclosed

Yours faithfully
Thomas Bruton.
