Paragon

Dear Sir,

Mrs. Catherine Murray, 93 Talbot Street has called here in respect to a claim for loss arising out of goods stored at the premises of Messrs Alexanders & Co., North Earl Street. This claim does not appear on any of the lists I have sent you but claimant states that she called here in person immediately after the Rebellion and notified to one of my clerks the fact of her having a claim to make. I have no record of this and as some of the members of my staff has left since then I am unable to investigate the matter further and I trust you will see your way to issue the forms of declaration to the claimant now and allow the claim to be investigated.

Yours faithfully,

Rob. Kidney
Secretary.
