Mr Sir

a few weeks ago I sent a claim for repairs done to roof during the rebellion to Mr. J. Kidney and he replied and told me, that the time had expired for sending in claims, + referred me to you; considering the way I am placed as my assistant has joined the army, and I have no one but myself to do anything. and I could not get the work done until now. and I am only claiming what I have to pay for the ref

The damage the ~~collected~~ military done to it; viz £5. which is very little. Considering the articles they took while in possession: cards of purses, razors & straps from one a new pair of gold rimmed glasses, and several other small things that they could get on their pockets and which I have made no claim for: I trust the Committee will see their way to let me have the £5 claimed the estimate I sent to Mr R J Kidney & that of Mr Wessely Hob & Home
