Secretary,
Property Losses (Ireland) Committee 1916,
D U B L I N.

Dear Sir,

In April last I was visiting Dublin and stopped in Wynns Hotel, which was burnt out, and in which I lost a Winter Overcoat and Handbag with contents, both value from £7 to £8, and am informed by the Proprietors of that Hotel that they are not liable, and any claims I make should be put before you.

Under the circumstances I shall be glad if you will let me have the Forms or Precedure in which I can forward my Claim. Also Forms for a friend of mine who was stopping with me in the Hotel, a Mr. Magee.

My reason for not making this claim earlier was simply that I understood the Hotel people were liable and shall be glad to have your early reply.

Thanking you in anticipation.

I am
Yours truly,

W. Pearson
