J.J. Healy Esq., Secy,
Property Losses Ireland Committee,
Dublin.

Dear Sir,

I have your letter of 1st inst and would point out that it was only a few days ago when I met Mr Ross the Proprietor of the Waverley Hotel. I heard he did not include our claim with his. I did not know his address and was unable to communicate with him. I understood you were receiving claims up to the 30th Novr which were omitted from other claims already admitted by your Committee, and as our amount is so moderate, being only £1.19. I trust you will now receive it as it was lodged by the 30th November. I was unable to obtain a blue claim form. We suffered heavily owing to the loss of our connection as some of the Colleges object to send their Students to our present temporary rooms in McGuire's College as they of course regard it as a rival Institution. We make no claim for this loss of connection although it is a serious one. Our property was not insured as we never contemplated the complete destruction of the Hotel.

Trusting you will reconsider our application,

Yours faithfully,

M. F. O'Malley
1st December

J.J. Healy Esq., Secy,
Property Losses (Ireland) Committee,
Dublin.

Dear Sir,

Through an oversight I omitted to send in a claim for the undernoted articles destroyed in the Waverley Hotel during the Rebellion. They were the property of the Institute of Shorthand-Writers of which I am Secretary, and were used in connection with our Examinations which were held in the Hotel:

- Brass Plate 20. 7. 6
- Blackboard & easel 15. 0
- 60 Ink bottles 5. 0
- Paper 5. 0
- 6 doz Pens @ 10d 5. 0
- 2 large bottles of ink 1. 6

Total: £1. 19. 0

The owner of the Hotel, Mr. Ross, did not include the above in his claim, as I expected.

Yours faithfully,

M.F. O'Reilly
