J. N. Boyland deceased
re Claim for damages

Dear Sir,

Referring to previous correspondence we hear from our client that she has been sent forms of Declaration to make as to the damage done to the premises of Messrs McDowell Brothers, or in other words Mr Cairnes, in No 26 Henry Street. Miss Boyland's claim, or rather the claim of her mother and herself, is in respect of a Mortgage on these premises and it would appear to us that the amount of claim in respect of the damages would have to be settled on Mr Cairnes' claim which he, as we understand, put in; and that our clients claim would be payable out of the amount so found due, or probably would remain a Charge on the premises to be newly constructed.

We shall be glad if you would consider this matter and let us hear from you.

Yours faithfully,

Wm J. Smith
