Dear Sir

nc 6-196

Kindly let me know if I am too late to send in my claim for tools lost in the recent rebellion I was employed in Hopkins & Hopkins for 6 years and I have lost all my tools with which to earn my living also to support my wife & family the reason that I am so late is I was employed in the Dublin Shell factory at munitions and I was not going to send in any claim as I did not think I would them for some time but I have been dismissed on account of sickness so I am compelled to try and earn my living again at my trade but I am handicapped for the want of tools hoping you will do all you can for me.

I remain Dear Sir
yours sincerely

Patrick Doyle
