Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 2nd instant I beg to state that the Committee's recommendations as regards 82 and 83 Summerhill have been forwarded to the Irish Government. In the case of No. 82 (J.K. Bridgeman) the Committee will, as desired, ask the Government to make the draft for such compensation as is awarded, payable to Mr Bridgeman and your client jointly. As regards No. 83 Summerhill the repairs in respect of which compensation was awarded has been carried out by the claimant.

Yours faithfully,

J. Hawthorne, Esq.,
15 Eustace Street,
Dublin.

Secretary.

Dear Sir,

Claim No. 5802. 13th List. 82 Summerhill, Bridgeman.
Claim No. 2790. 83 Summerhill. Shanahan.

I am acting for Mrs. Rosaline Boyle of Stranorlar, Co. Donegal, the landlord of these two houses, in respect of which claims have been made by the respective lessees for damage done to the premises during the Rebellion.

Mrs. Boyle made no claim herself, as, owing to her living so far away, she was not aware until recently that her property was damaged. However, she is anxious to see that all the compensation paid will be expended in suitable repairs, and for this purpose I would ask you to take steps to have the drafts made payable to my client jointly with each of the claimants.

Yours truly,

The Secretary,
Property Losses Committee,
51 Stephens Green E.
City.
