re Claim No. 6874.

Dear Sirs,

In reply to your letter of the 6th instant addressed to Mr Kidney, I am directed by the Property Losses Committee to state that apart from the question of the claim coming to hand too late for consideration, it represents a consequential loss, which under the terms of reference the Committee are precluded from dealing with.

Yours faithfully,

Messrs. C. Ramsay & Son,
Balls Bridge.
Dublin.

R. J. Kidney, Esq.,

12/14 College Green,

Dublin.

Dear Sir,

Last April we had a consignment of Cut Flowers from London, which were held up at Holyhead by the outbreak in Dublin, and were disposed of by the L & N.W. Ry. Co., for 13/3.

The cost of those which we have paid the Consignors was £3. 5. 9. Will you kindly let us know if we have any claim for those amounts. We thought the Railway Co. would pay the claim and enclose letter from them, which please read and return, and oblige,

Yours faithfully,

Charles Ramsay & Son
