Dear Sir just-a few lines in reply to your letter which I received only a few days ago. as I was away in the country when it came to my lodging I wrote some time ago to the Gentlemen of the Committee telling them

of my great loss the time of the rebellion
the mourning of my discharges in Mr Brooks office and as I have no way of earning my living But - By looking it was as great loss to me
I know dear gentlemen
I am very late now
to get anything I don't want - much in the way of compensation But-if you could see your way in giving me some little to keep me for a few weeks till I would get some work I would feel very grateful hoping I am not giving too much trouble

yours respectfully

A Flynn, Esq.

16th Novr.,

Dear Madam,

In reply to your letter I beg to state that the Committee regret that they are unable to entertain a claim for compensation for the loss of discharges.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

Miss A. Flynn,
38 Denzille Street,
Dublin.

38 Denjille
Street -

Of the trouble in the city my discharge was burned in his office I have to leave my home
as Cook however no papers to look for a situation a friend
told me to apply
you. hoping I am

Dear Sir
just a line hoping I am not giving you any trouble in telling you my case is the burning of Mr Brophy's the time

Discharged
Why
Refer this the common report this has no value
for his loss of discharges not too Late and you Gentlemen may be able to do something for me

I remain
Yours respectfully
