Gentlemen
I am in receipt of your letter to Messrs Hopkins & Hopkins
refusing to entertain my claim for Pearl
for pendant left in their charge, previous to rising in Easter week, and which was lost during same. I wish to state that I have been seriously ill since then and not allowed to attend any business whatever

hence delay sending claim sooner, if necessary I can send doctors certificate.
Hoping to hear

Favourably from you

Dear Sir,

We herewith send another claim received this morning. This lady called in yesterday evening to inquire about the pearl which she left. We informed her that she should have sent her claim in before now, she then explained to us that she had been away under the Doctors care as a result of the rebellion, consequently, she was unable to attend to it before now. Your kind attention will very much oblige.

Yours faithfully,

HOPKINS & HOPKINS.

Return enclosure to H. & H.

& say the fee regret they are unable at this late date to accept any fresh claims. Add that the committee will be obliged if H. & H. will inform any fresh claimants of this & that it is unnecessary to forward their letters to this office.

Gentlemen (M)

About a week before Easter I left a Pearl to be mounted as a pendant which I value for about £4 four pounds, and
same having been lost in the transit

of Easter week. I will feel obliged if you will let me have the amount claimed

I much oblige
