re claim of McDowell, Bros.

Dear Sirs,

In reply to your further letter of the 6th instant I have to state that the only claim lodged by your clients in respect of customers goods settled for by them has been dealt with.

The several claims referred to in your letter were claims made by customers. No award was made by the Committee in respect of them as the parties had received compensation.

If your clients propose to claim for the further items settled with their customers they should lodge such claims here without further delay, as the work of the Committee is drawing to a close.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.
