re Claim No. 6936.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 9th inst I beg to state that the Property Losses Committee have had before them claims similar to that made in this case, and they have been obliged to rule that the loss involved by the salvage of the butter by the railway authorities was a consequential one, which under the terms of reference they are precluded from dealing with.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

The Manager,
Windgap Co-operative Dairy Society,
Windgap,
Co. Kilkenny.

Dear Sir,

ten boxes of butter commandeered by the military

We have made several applications to the Rly. Co.

of 1/2 per lb.

£40 is the nett value as invoiced to consignee on date

Hoping the matter will have your immediate attention as it is now a long time hanging over.

Yours faithfully,
